

Please do not limit the NJ State do not call list. This initiative is working and should be applied throughout the nation through federal legislation. It makes no sense to limit its effectiveness and return to the disruption of family life by telecommunications intruders.

Thanks you,

George N. Venidis